Three highly established international brands, Defected, Champion and UDG unite in a shared belief of empowering people to express their authentic selves and create impact through culture.

Together, the three brands brands celebrate self-expression as a force for progress by supporting creators, amplifying diverse voices and fostering communities. Whether through fashion or music, Defected, Champion and UDG drive culture that moves people forward, turning individual passion into collective impact.

Curators and creators Millie & Phoebe, founders of In The Loop – a community-led channel bringing together like-minded house heads and artists to celebrate all that they love about the scene. Ellie Scougall is a DJ, producer and label boss hailing from Newcastle who is actively championing the rising house sounds of today by pushing for women and more diverse voices in electronic music. Mr James is a music producer and selector specialising in sound healing and the expansive sounds of reggae, soca, soul, house and disco.

Andrew is a dancer, DJ, club aficionado and nightlife expert who founded A Hard Day's Dance, an events brand and online community uniting people with the dancefloor, and Maria Hanlon is a radio presenter, broadcaster and the host of The Voices Breakfast Show on Voices, one of the UK's fastest growing radio stations

A launch event was held on Thursday, 16th July, at the Champion store in Soho, London.

House of Champion: A Night to Remember

A few of our favourite moments from the launch of the Defected x Champion X UDG 'House Of Champion' collection at Champion's Soho store.

From our House Champions bringing the energy behind the decks to seeing the collection come to life in-store, it was an incredible evening from start to finish.
